

Alaminos CCRO bags Best Slogan

City Civil Registrar Lovely D. Milles and Maricar R. Nening, Registration Officer II attended the recently concluded North Luzon Alliance Workshop on Civil Registration held at Banaue Hotel, Banaue, Ifugao last April 14-16, 2015 with the theme; “NCLARI @ 10: Sustained Partnership for Enhanced Workplace Productivity”. The workshop tackled various civil registration issues and updates as well as pertinent concerns coming from representatives of line agencies connected to civil registration implementers like the Department of Education and Department of Foreign Affairs Regional Office which is a great help for harmonization of policies and procedures between the respective office’s workflow.

One of the highlights of the said event was the awarding of the winners of the 2015 CRVS Slogan Contest in line of the Civil Registration Month this February 2015 organized by the Philippine Statistics Authority Regional Statistical Services Office I in coordination with the Regional/Provincial Association of Civil Registrars in Region 1 which revolves around the theme “Sama ka sa CRVS Groupie: Get every Juan and Juana in the picture”.

The slogan entry of Ms. Maricar R. Nening, Registration Officer II of the City Civil Registry Office of Alaminos bagged the Best Slogan in Filipino which garnered an average score of 91%. The winning slogan, “Wastong Datos ng Rehistro, Salamin ng Matiwasay at Samasamang Pag-asenso” bested the seven (7) regional finalists that were selected from the provincial eliminations held simultaneously in participating City/Municipal LCRO’s in Region 1 last February 23, 2015. Her slogan will be used in the civil registration advocacy campaign for a more responsive civil registration system during the entire CRVS decade 2015-2024. Dr. Lisa Grace S. Bersales, National Statistician and Civil Registrar General of the Philippine Statistics Authority spearheaded the awarding of recognition.
